

CONTENTS

KEY TO TRANSLITERATION OF SAMSKṚTA
WORDS AND PRONUNCIATION	xix
INTRODUCTION	xxiii
I THE DEJECTION OF ŚRĪ RĀMA	1
The Questions of Bharadvāja—The Arrival of Viśvāmitra—Life is full of Sorrow—The stages of Life are Painful — The Might of Time.
II THE BEGINNING OF THE TEACHING	13
The Story of Śuka —Mental Impression is Twofold — Guardians of the Entrance to Liberation.
III THE MANNER OF ORIGIN	23
The Nature of Bondage—The World Con- sists of the Mind—The Characteristic of One Who is Liberated while Living—The Nature of Brahman or the Supreme Spirit
IV THE STORY OF LILĀ	31
The Attainment of the Boon from the Goddess—The Early History—The Prac- tice of (The Realization of) Brahman or the Supreme Spirit—The Following Story — The Return
V THE STORY OF SŪCĪ	45
The Austerity of Sūcī — The Question Posed by Sūcī—Answering the Queries of Sūcī
VI THE POWER OF THOUGHT	53
The Story of Aindava — The Story of a Sensualist—The Story of the Mind—The Story of the Child

htha

7

sishtha

of God

Mother:

er Essa

ha's

	(or Spiritual Ignorance)
	science
VIII	THE STORY OF BHĀRGAVA	79
	Bhārgava's "Kingdom of the Fancy" (Castle in the Air) — Awakening of Bhārgava (or Śukra, the Son of Bhṛgu) — The Washing of the Impurities of the Mind
IX	THE STORY OF DĀMA AND OTHERS	87
	The Rise of Ego — Ego is of Three Kinds— The State Free from Mental Impressions — The Manifestation of the Individual Soul
X	THE STORY OF DĀSURA	97
	The Manner (or Order) of Creation — The Austerity of Dāsūra — The Awakening of the Son — The Power of Ideation — The Renunciation of Mental Impressions
XI	THE STORY OF JANAKA	111
	The Hearing of the Song of the Sages —The Awakening of Janaka—The Renunciation of Mental Impressions is of Two Kinds — Conviction is of Four Kinds—The Conver- sation of Puṇya and Pāvana
XII	THE STORY OF BALI	124
	The Dejection of Bali—The Instruction by the Father—The Instruction by Śukra
XIII	THE STORY OF PRAHLĀDA	131
	The Satisfaction of God Hari—The Inquiry into the Self—The Awakening

XV	THE STORY OF UDDĀLAKA	149
	The Expectation of Repose — Inner Investi- gation—The Attainment of Identity with Being or Existence—The Supreme Repose
XVI	THE STORY OF SURAGHU	160
	Coolness Within—The Teaching of Man- davya—The Conversation with Parigha — Lifting up One's Own Self
XVII	THE MANNER OF DESTRUCTION OF THE MIND	168
	The Conversation between Bhāsa and Vilāsa—Close Attachment—The Conduct of Those Liberated while Living—The Con- trol of the Movements of the Mind
XVIII	THE STORY OF VITĀHAVYA	180
	The Control of the Movement of Prāṇa (or the Vital Air) —The Contemplation of the Mind—The State of Aloneness or Final Liberation—The Two Kinds of Disappear- ance of the Mind
XIX	THE QUENCHING (OR THE CALMING) OF THE MIND	19
	The Two Seeds (or Prime Causes) of the Mind — Absence of Knowing (or Experi- encing)—The Three Means—Destruction of the Mind and Others—The Investigation into the Nature of the Supreme Spirit
XX	CONTEMPLATION OF THE SELF THAT IS PURE CONSCIOUSNESS	2
	The Cause of Delusion—The Division of Spiritual Ignorance—The Method of Scruti- ny—The Two Kinds of Yoga

xvi
XXI	THE STORY OF BHUMUNDA	210
	The Origin of Bhumunda—Continuance through the Ends of World-Cycles—Won- derful (or Varied) Experience—Reflection on Prāna (or Vital Air or Bio-energy)—The Cause of Long Life
XXII	THE MANNER OF WORSHIPPING THE DEITY	216
	The Question on the Manner—The Self is the Highest Deity—The Method of Worship
XXIII	THE GLORY OF THE POWER OF PURE CONSCIOUSNESS	225
	The Story of the Bilva Fruit—The Story of the Great Rock—The Story of Arjuna—The Story of a Mendicant
XXIV	THE STORY OF BHAGIRATHA	237
	The Silence of Suṣupti (or Profound Re- pose)—The Story of a Goblin—The Means of Knowledge—The Repose of the Mind
XXV	THE GLORY OF CHŪDĀLĀ	257
	The Rise of Knowledge—Kuṇḍalinī (The Potential Bio-Energy in Living Beings)— Diseases of the Mind and Body—Superna- tural Powers like Aṇiman—The Need for Instruction
XXVI	THE PENANCE OF ŚIKHIDHVAJA	269
	The Dwelling in the Forest—The Assump- tion of the Form of Kumbha by Cūḍālā— The Story of Chintāmaṇi, the Wish-full- filling Gem—The Story of the Elephant
XXVII	THE TEACHING OF CHŪDĀLĀ	281
	The Complete Renunciation—The Method of Renunciation of the Mind (or the Giving up of Thoughts)—The Certain Knowledge (or Fixity in Meditation) of Śū-

Contents

- XXVIII THE TEST OF ŚIKHIDHVAJA 293
The Womanhood of Kumbha during the Night—Allurement—The Clearing up
(of the Situation) by Chūḍālā—Coronation
in his Kingdom
- XXIX LIVING IN THE FULLNESS OF CONSCIOUSNESS 30
The Story of Kaca —The Story of the Unreal Person—The Story of Bhṛṅgīśa
- XXX THE STORY OF IKṢVĀKU 31
The Cause of Worldly Existence—The Steps of Yoga (or the Effort towards Absorption in the Self)—The Attainment of Brahmanhood—The State of Liberation While Living
- XXXI CONQUEST OF THE STEPS
The Destruction of Thought—Ascending
the First Three Steps—The Higher Steps
—The Contemplation of Brahman Alone
- XXXII THE CONCLUSION OF THE TREATIES
The Awakening (or Knowledge) of Bharadvāja—The Tranquillity of Rāma